ECXO to introduce BitDefender in Portugal

BitDefender, a leading provider of security related software and services, and Ecxo Portugal, a Lisbon-based computer services provider, announce the signing of a distribution agreement, which nominates ECXO the sole distributor of BitDefender Antivirus products in Portugal.

"This alliance reinforces our development strategy in the computer services area. Through our agreement with Softwin, a market leader in the data security solutions area, we will be able to provide our customers with a large array of new products and services. We completely rely on their technologies. The international awards received by BitDefender indicate their high level of commitment to antivirus research and development", declared Paulo Gonçalves, General Manager at Ecxo Portugal.

Ecxo Portugal is a company primarily specialized in providing professional services, among which: specialist technical assistance, for both current issues and new projects implementation, implementing and configuring computer networks, creation and development of websites, registration of domains and electronic addresses.

"We are confident that the combination of their know-how and capacities of distribution with BitDefender products will provide our portuguese customers with an unparalleled level of safety." commented Bogdan Irina, Business Development Manager for BitDefender at SOFTWIN.
